The logo for Posh Paraphernalia, featuring the word "Posh" in a stylized, cursive pink font. Below it, the website address "www.poshparaphernalia.com" is written in a smaller, simpler font. The logo is set against a light, circular background.

Inspired by their love of entertaining and all things glamorous, mother and daughter Jane and Sophie Richardson designed a range of Posh Pinnies that can be worn with pride on any occasion, whether you're hosting a dinner party, answering the door, cooking, cleaning or just want to look a little special while you're doing the dishes!

If you could do with a little more glamour in you life, they're offering friends of Belvoir 10% off in their online shop when you use the code "BELVOIR10 ". The discount can only be used once and is valid until 31st October 2011.
