

PARTY DRESSING AT ANY AGE

Style has no age limit – and here's the proof: seven readers, from their twenties to their sixties, model our favourite outfits for every festive occasion

BY HANNAH SHUCKBURGH

PHOTOGRAPHS ANDREW HAYES-WATKINS

STYLING ALEXANDRA WHEELER

THE FAMILY LUNCH PARTY

MODELLED BY: Jane Richardson, 63, and her daughter Sophie, 27, who run chic apron company Posh Pinnies.

WE SAY: Christmas Day lunch is always worth sprucing up for – but comfort needn't be sacrificed. Mother-and-daughter business partners Jane and Sophie show how to glam up the skirt and top combination to dazzling effect.

Jane wears silk top, £89, Bel Air at Fenwick. Wool and angora skirt, £149, Laurel at Harrods. Pearl necklace, £12, Miss Madame. Leather and suede belt, £75, Coccinelle. Gold bangle, £189, Mawi at Harvey Nichols. Tights, £7.99, Le Bourget at tightsplease.co.uk. Suede shoes, £215, Russell & Bromley. Sophie wears silk top, £139; silk skirt, £165; both Tara Jarmon at Fenwick. Satin belt, £29, Cos. Glass and resin necklace, £80, Mimco. Resin bangle, £88, Angle Gooderham at mywardrobe.com. Tights, £11, Falke. Moc-croc shoes, £20, Dorothy Perkins

Jane says: "The gorgeous fabrics and beautiful cut of the skirt make this the perfect outfit for a special occasion"

Sophie says: "This outfit strikes just the right balance of daytime elegance with a hint of party glamour" →

